Quick start user guide: Contact Application

Home Page:

- User will be displayed the contacts information
- User can add new contact, edit and delete existing contact
- User can able to search for existing contacts

New Contact:

- User can 'add contact' by clicking the 'ADD CONTACT' button on home page
- Mandatory values to enter are: first name and last name
- User can enter multiple values. Except middle name, no value can be null
- There can be variable number of addresses, phone numbers and Dates

Edit Contact:

- User can edit from home page by clicking on the 'Edit' button for particular contact
- After clicking edit, user can add/remove/modify variable number of addresses, phone numbers and dates, and can also modify the first name, last name and middle name of user.
- The validity condition is same as add contact (Except middle name, no value can be null)
- User can able to save or cancel the edit.

Delete Contact:

- User can delete from home page by clicking on the 'Delete' button for particular contact
- Once contact deleted cannot be restored, (it deletes permanently from database)

Search Contact:

- User can search contacts using any part of name, address or phone number (case sensitive).
- There will be list of matching contacts displayed to user and had option to edit or delete record.
- User will be provided a link to go back to complete contact list.